

Gottlieb Stroh

10-18-89

Gottlieb Stroh, 82, Lacey, Wash., died Tuesday, Oct. 10, 1989 at Panorama City, Wash. A memorial service was held at Good Shepherd Lutheran Church, Friday, Oct. 13 with Pastor Robert Hostad, officiating. Inurnment was in Olympic Memorial Garden.

Gottlieb Stroh was born November 18, 1906 to John and Magdlaena (Herman) Stroh at Ashley, N.D. He married Sarah Carley October 14, 1929 at Ashley N.D.

They lived in Groton most of his life where he owned and operated Stroh's Barber Shop at Groton for 40 years. He also lived in Longview, Wash., for 15 years and Yakima, Wash., for five years.

He was a member of Emmanuel Lutheran Church in Longview, Wash.

He is survived by his wife, Sarah; one daughter, Kay Fangen, Olympia, Wash.; one son, Donald, Los Angeles, Calif.; two sisters, Clara Stroh and Lydia Kramer, both of Davis, Calif.; three brothers, Theodore Stroh, Woodland, Calif., George Stroh, Mobridge, and Oscar Stroh, Eugene, Ore.; two grandchildren as well as numerous nieces and nephews.

Memorial donations should be sent to Good Shepherd Lutheran Church in Olympia, Wash.